97

Drs.

A continuous series of sixteenth-note strokes on the snare drum, starting with a bass note. The pattern repeats eight times across the measures.

102

Drs.

A complex pattern for the drums. It starts with a sixteenth-note roll, followed by a measure of eighth-note pairs. Then it enters section Q (marked with a square containing 'Q') consisting of a sixteenth-note roll followed by a measure of eighth-note pairs. This is followed by section R (marked with a square containing 'R') consisting of a sixteenth-note roll followed by a measure of eighth-note pairs. The pattern then continues with alternating measures of eighth-note pairs and sixteenth-note rolls. The dynamic is marked 'ff'.

122

Drs.

A pattern of eighth-note pairs on the snare drum. It features a section labeled 'S' (in a square) where the pattern changes to a sixteenth-note roll followed by a measure of eighth-note pairs.

135

Drs.

A pattern of eighth-note pairs on the snare drum. It features a section labeled 'T' (in a square) where the pattern changes to a sixteenth-note roll followed by a measure of eighth-note pairs.

148

Drs.

A pattern of eighth-note pairs on the snare drum, continuing from the previous section.
